

Policy Statement

It's the enhanced functions of mobile phones that cause the most concern.

Misuse can include the taking & distribution of indecent images, exploitation and cyber bullying.

This misuse can impact on an individual's dignity, privacy & right to confidentiality.

We have a statutory duty in school to protect the vulnerabilities of everyone within our school community.

This places the use of mobile phones in schools under SAFEGUARDING.

An agreement of trust is promoted between school & families regarding the carrying and use of mobile phones within school.

ROYAL CROSS PRIMARY SCHOOL MOBILE PHONE INFORMATION FOR VISITORS

Polite Notice

Visitors into school are respectfully asked to follow the school's safeguarding policy and guidelines on mobile phone use in school.

Royal Cross Primary School

We ask that all visitors respect school's safeguarding procedures when carrying and using mobile phones/ digital recording devices in school.

Please follow these guidelines.

MOBILE PHONES IN SCHOOL

Parents & carers are asked NOT to photograph or video school events using their phones and asked NOT to publish any images on any social networking site of children other than their own.

If you need to make a call, please ask a member of staff to take you to these areas
The school office, the reception area, the conference room.

Visitors into school are kindly asked to keep any personal cameras, mobile phones or other recording equipment either in their pocket or in their bag.

PTFA meetings – parents and carers are respectfully asked to switch off their phones and to keep them in bags.

Any individual bringing a personal device into the setting must ensure that it contains no inappropriate or illegal content.

Parents and carers are responsible for ensuring any family members or friends visiting school understand and abide by these guidelines.

This guidance should be seen as a safeguard for pupils and visitors into school.
